

Use the FT to connect the dots between technology, business, politics and the economy to better understand emerging risks and opportunities across regions and industries.

INDUSTRY GUIDE: TECHNOLOGY

The following recommendations are a great way for those working in technology to start optimising their use of FT.com.

Stay informed on important themes by adding these topics to your myFT. You can also follow your company, competitors and your customers by searching the company names and selecting 'Add to myFT.'

- Tech sector, Tech start-ups, Trading tech, Big tech, Technology regulation, Data protection, Biotech, Cyber warfare, Semiconductors, Fintech.

Subscribe to newsletters for concise bursts of insight delivered to your inbox.

- #techFT, daily coverage on how technology is transforming different industry sectors. Its input stretches from San Francisco to China.

- #fintechFT, your curated briefing on digital disruption in the financial industry every Monday. Read original pieces of fintech reporting from our team based in Europe, Asia and the US.

- Due Diligence, every Tuesday to Friday morning, Due Diligence is the must-read daily briefing on corporate finance, mergers & acquisitions, and private equity.

Further develop your intellectual curiosity by reading renowned FT opinion writers. Try following the below in myFT for a range of perspectives to help challenge and shape your own views.

- Elaine Moore (Deputy Head of Lex), John Thornhill (Innovation Editor), Richard Waters (West Coast Editor), Yuan Yang (Deputy Beijing Bureau Chief), Rana Foroohar (Global Business Columnist), James Kyngé (Global China Editor).

Consume the FT in different formats. Download the mobile app, listen to podcasts, watch video explainers, explore the most important graphics/data today.