INDUSTRY GUIDE: PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

The following recommendations are a great way for those working in professional services to start optimising their use of FT.com.

Stay informed on important themes by adding these topics to your myFT. You can also follow your clients by searching the company name and selecting ‘Add to myFT.’

- Law, legal services, financial & markets regulation, corporate governance, data protection, mergers & acquisitions, management consulting, innovation, corporate culture, technology.

Subscribe to newsletters for concise bursts of insight delivered to your inbox.

- Due Diligence, every Tuesday to Friday morning, Due Diligence is the must-read daily briefing on corporate finance, mergers & acquisitions, and private equity.

- Coronavirus Business Update, three times a week, how is coronavirus taking its toll on the global economy, markets and business? Stay briefed with the FT’s must-read coverage.

- Best of Lex, a weekly roundup of the top stories from the FT’s premium daily commentary service. Lex is the oldest and arguably the most influential business and finance column of its kind in the world. It highlights key emerging investment risks and opportunities you can use as points for discussion with clients.

Further develop your intellectual curiosity by reading renowned FT opinion writers. Try following the below in myFT for a range of perspectives to help challenge and shape your own views.

- Andrew Hill (Management Editor), Martin Sandbu (European Economics Commentator), Pilita Clark (Business Columnist), Gideon Rachman (Chief Foreign Affairs Commentator).

Consume the FT in different formats. Download the mobile app, listen to podcasts, watch video explainers, explore the most important graphics/data today.