INDUSTRY GUIDE:
FINANCE

The following recommendations are a great way for those working in finance to start optimising their use of FT.com.

Stay informed on important themes by adding these topics to your myFT. You can also follow individual sectors and companies of interest by searching for them and selecting ‘Add to myFT.’

- Markets, commodities, equities, fund management, IPOs, mergers & acquisitions, hedge funds, financial regulation, ESG investing, capital markets, currencies, fintech.

Subscribe to newsletters for concise bursts of insight delivered to your inbox.

- Due Diligence, every Tuesday to Friday morning, Due Diligence is the must-read daily briefing on corporate finance, mergers & acquisitions, and private equity.

- Coronavirus Business Update, three times a week, how is coronavirus taking its toll on the global economy, markets and business? Stay briefed with the FT’s must-read coverage.

- #fintechFT, your curated briefing on digital disruption in the financial industry every Monday. Read original pieces of fintech reporting from our team based in Europe, Asia and the US.

Further develop your intellectual curiosity by reading renowned FT opinion writers. Try following the below in myFT for a range of perspectives to help challenge and shape your own views.

- Martin Sandbu (European Economics Commentator), Robin Wigglesworth (Global Finance Correspondent), Katie Martin (Markets Editor), Gideon Rachman (Chief Foreign Affairs Commentator), Lex (FT’s flagship finance column), Gillian Tett (US Editor-at-Large), Alphaville (Daily finance commentary), Martin Wolf (Chief Economics Commentator).

Consume the FT in different formats. Download the mobile app, listen to podcasts, watch video explainers, explore the most important graphics/data today.

www.ft.com/enterprise-resources